

HILDEGARD AND THE ARTS

A full day conference on Hildegard of Bingen, 12th century mystic, prophet, healer, artist, composer, polymath

UNITY OF ST. PETERSBURG CHURCH & FREEFALL THEATRE

Located near each other on 1st Ave. North, 59-62nd block, St. Petersburg, Florida

Ms. Melinda Gardiner, Executive Director of the international Music for Healing and Transition Program: "The Therapeutic Aspects of Hildegard's Music," keynote

Dr. Stephen Salamone, Jungian lecturer: a presentation on mysticism

Mr. Mark D. Ruffner, graphic designer, a study of the mandala form in art

Dr. Lynn Carol Henderson, instructor in the arts at Eckerd College: Hildegard's visionary paintings

Ms. Linn Maxwell will deliver a one-woman presentation of Hildegard, including her music* The Hildegard Singers, newly formed group, premiering their music CD.

MS. Margaret Waddell, soprano, performing Hildegard's chants during Regional Expressive Arts Practitioners (REAP) presentation of an interactive art session.*

Baked goods and other food items using Hildegard's recipes will be available. Spiritual artworks will be displayed, many for sale. Natural & herbal remedies for sale.

3 CEU's for the Music for Healing and Transition Program will be offered for the full day's sessions.

*Some sessions available on individual, per session cost of $20 each.

Date: Saturday, June 11, 2011

9:00 a.m. - 10:00 p.m. with breaks

8:30 a.m. Conference Registration

9:00 a.m. Welcome and introduction

Evening performance: a staged reading/readers' theatre version of original full-length musical drama* "A Brightness in Bingen"

Contact person: Kathy Luethje at katluchi@yahoo.com or call 727-595-3622
www.hildegard-arts.com

Cost of full day conference is $75 or 2 for $60. After May 15, 2011, cost is $100.